Three Million Bill was passed.

about the issue in the Municipal Election.

2nd of yesterday, in speaking of the

of Mr. Haywood, as Mayor of the city, young man who one time it was to be a member of the city council, is now in the streets of market he has been started by the people quite right. Mr. Haywood's reputation is not better than such is his reputation.

It is no way like Binger, to enter into a design for him for his service.

He is not of his origin or his business, he is not of the people of Binger; the reverse is the fact. Binger above other places, we have any acquaintance or cheering on and boasting upon their lives, deserving men, who have struggled with domestic difficulties. So general and so trading in this feeling—this sentiment, that are strongly inclined to doubt, there having any such opposition to Mr. Haywood, made my seriousness and by any responsible person in our city.

We love Binger, and we do not like that his reputation should suffer in a matter of this kind. She cannot change her character at once, and with the numerous examples which the last quarter of a century have furnished of the individual and sustaining hand held extended by Binger to the poor in their struggles, as if they may now be found among her first meauties and other honorable stations, she has earned a better character and richly deserves to wear it.

We believe the statement we have copied from the Ga... to be a part of such kind of gossip, as a man loves to invent and im-pute to others in the hope of making a little damaging capital.

Such a way to injure a good cause in the long run and hurt the good resolution of deserving, and war women. We know not how extensive this act of gross statements were circulated previous to the election.

We hope they were limited to a number and extent. That is just the reason, in an instance at least, we are satisfied, therefore we feel escape is doubtful rebuke.

Whether for good or evil, die and wake goes his effect before he dies, or which not seems either wise or well in a man, now that the matter is settled.

Mr. Haywood had no reason to expect that he, age occupied the enviable position of being entirely free from all objection with our community—

He took occasion to express as much as that at a recent meeting, or I am informed, in his speech, he did not know and very acknowledged that he did not know and very acknowledg-
